What is Rapid Re-housing?

- An intervention, informed by a Housing First approach, that is a critical part of an effective homeless crisis response system
- Rapidly connects families and individuals experiencing homelessness to permanent housing through a tailored package of assistance that may include the use of time-limited financial assistance and targeted supportive services.

What is Rapid Re-housing?

- Helps families and individuals living on the streets or in emergency shelters solve the practical and immediate challenges to obtaining permanent housing while reducing the amount of time they experience homelessness
- A fundamental goal of rapid re-housing is to reduce the amount of time a person is homeless
