Dear Friends,

Momentum is building. In 2016, homelessness in Chicago was reduced by 13%, and we are more confident than ever that one day, all our neighbors will have a place to call home. All Chicago continues to prevent and end homelessness through emergency financial assistance, community partnerships, data analytics, and capacity building. Your investment in All Chicago has been an investment in smart, targeted solutions, and it’s paying off. Our strategies are working, word is spreading, and we are devoted to leading the way.

At All Chicago, we have the opportunity not only to review the numbers, but also to recognize that each number represents a person or family whose lives have been improved by our programs and community leadership.

We are incredibly proud of the outcomes, partnerships, and results we achieved in 2016. On behalf of All Chicago and those whom we serve, thank you for your support and partnership. Together, we will lead the way until all Chicagoans have a safe and stable home.

Best,

Nonie Brennan
Chief Executive Officer

More Than Just a Number

Our clients are your neighbors, colleagues, students, and friends. Their experience is vital to our work and informs our most successful strategies.

The Emergency Fund was originally founded by businessman and philanthropist Norman H. Stone in 1973.

He was inspired to act when he heard about a Chicago family in need who could not find financial assistance at any social service agencies. Based on the values of providing help immediately and without red tape, Mr. Stone founded the Emergency Fund to meet the community’s need. The Chicago Alliance to End Homelessness was founded in 2006 to remove duplicate efforts and more effectively use limited resources across Chicago’s homeless service system.

In 2015, The Emergency Fund and the Alliance merged to become All Chicago Making Homelessness History. Our mission is still guided by the original goals envisioned by Mr. Stone. Today, the Emergency Fund is more powerful than ever. It has recently expanded to assist specific populations such as veterans and students. All Chicago’s Board of Directors is chaired by Norman’s son, Alan. Alan’s niece Lisa, and nephew-in-law Rich, also continue Norman’s rich legacy by serving on the board.

Emergency Financial Assistance
We provide critical financial assistance to people experiencing an emergency that could lead to homelessness or other crises.

Community Partnerships
We convene key stakeholders and drive collaboration to lead Chicago’s citywide response to ending homelessness.

Data Analytics
We manage a citywide database to collect and analyze data on people experiencing, or at risk of, homelessness and the services they receive.

Capacity Building
We provide our partners with trainings, information, and tools to address homelessness more effectively.

SUCCESSFUL STRATEGIES
How we prevent and end homelessness:

Citywide Collaborations

- Emergency Financial Assistance Partners: 52
- Community Partnerships: 51
- Data Analytics Partnerships: 88
- Capacity Building Trainings: 42

Total number of organizations we partner with: 124

Learn more about our partnerships at allchicago.org.
Our Emergency Fund provides payments for things like rent, utilities, or even bus passes to keep our neighbors stable in their homes. Our partner agencies refer their clients to the Emergency Fund, and any Chicago resident in need of assistance can dial 3-1-1 and request “Short Term Help” to be assessed and referred.

3,195 households served

>1,350 children served

$2,700,754 distributed in emergency financial assistance

2.4 days average time in which funds were disbursed in collaboration with 53 partner agencies

$845 average grant size

In 2016, homelessness and job changes were the top reasons help was requested.
94% of clients surveyed reported being housed at the time of follow up.

88% of clients surveyed reported that the financial assistance resolved their crisis.
Community Partnerships

Our Continuum of Care team drives the citywide response to homelessness by leading Chicago’s Continuum of Care through a year-round research, evaluation, strategic planning, and federal funding application process. (The Continuum of Care is a membership group that strategizes and plans a coordinated, comprehensive approach to providing housing and services for people experiencing homelessness.)

We secured a total of $64,921,879 in federal funding which was directly distributed to 163 housing and homeless services projects at 45 agencies. This was a $1,223,733 increase from 2015, which added 397 shelter beds for families.

We conducted ten site visits with partner agencies to help them improve their outcomes. Agencies improved their scores in the next evaluation cycle by an average of 12%. By helping our partner agencies’ outcomes improve, we make our city more competitive for vital government funds.

From 2015 to 2016, overall homelessness decreased in Chicago by 13%.

Data Analytics

We manage the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) database. Our team gathers and analyzes local data on people experiencing, or at risk of, homelessness, and the services they receive. HMIS was elected as the exclusive data source for the Ending Veterans Homelessness Initiative. We track the number of homeless veterans, how long they remain homeless, what types of resources are available to them, and more. We share the data daily with other initiative leaders and partners. This drives citywide discussion and decision making.

3,500
Veterans housed since 2015

<600
Fewer than 600 veterans remain homeless in Chicago

We will continue until we have housed those who are currently homeless and we have a coordinated, citywide process in place wherein we can identify, assess, and house veterans within 90 days of their becoming homeless.
The research found that households receiving $1,000 in financial assistance were an average of 76% less likely to enter a homeless shelter in the next twelve months.

The research independently proves that emergency funds are a highly effective method of stabilizing our neighbors in their homes. The research was published in the August 12, 2016 edition of the peer-reviewed journal, Science.

At All Chicago, we are committed to using funds responsibly. What this means: For every $1.00 spent, 90 cents goes directly to ending and preventing homelessness.
